DETAILED ACTION

Claim 8 is pending and examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the formula in line 4 the position of R3 is confusing. It is not clear that it is supposed to be attached to O.

In line 5 the intent of the recitation "and salts and solvates (e.g. hydrates) thereof" is confusing as to whether all salts and solvates are required and what other solvates are contemplated. Amending the recitation to recite "or a salt or solvate thereof" and deleting "'e.g. hydrates'" would overcome this rejection.

In lines 13 and 42 the word "may" is confusing. Amending it to recite "is optionally" will overcome this rejection.

The word "represents" is confusing, especially in lines 40 and 41 "m represents zero or 1" and "n represents 1, 2, or 3," where numerals are recited. Amending it to recite "is" will overcome this rejection.

Prior Art of Record

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. CA119:95549, CA121:205373, CA123:340173 and CA124:29779 disclose methods of using the instant compound but do not render the instant invention obvious in the absence of additional information.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 8 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,656,945 (claims 1-2), 6,723,719 (claims 9) and 6,407,114 (claim 12). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they teach a method of treating male erectile dysfunction using the instant compound.

Applicants are requested to identify any other cases in which there may be obviousness-type double patenting.
